

QUARTERLY QUESTION

We want to pick that genius brain of yours! Beginning with this Telicom issue, you will see a new feature called The Quarterly Question. Telicom will pose a new question to our membership each quarter and then print several selected answers, along with the names of those contributors, in the following issue.

Our debut Quarterly Question is below.

What kind of life advice would you offer to a young adult who just found out he/she has an IQ at or above the 99.9th percentile?

Send your helpful, serious, inspiring, humorous, thought-provoking, or other answers (of 200 words or fewer) to editor@thousanders.com by May 31, 2018, and select answers will be printed in our next Telicom issue, along with a new Quarterly Question.

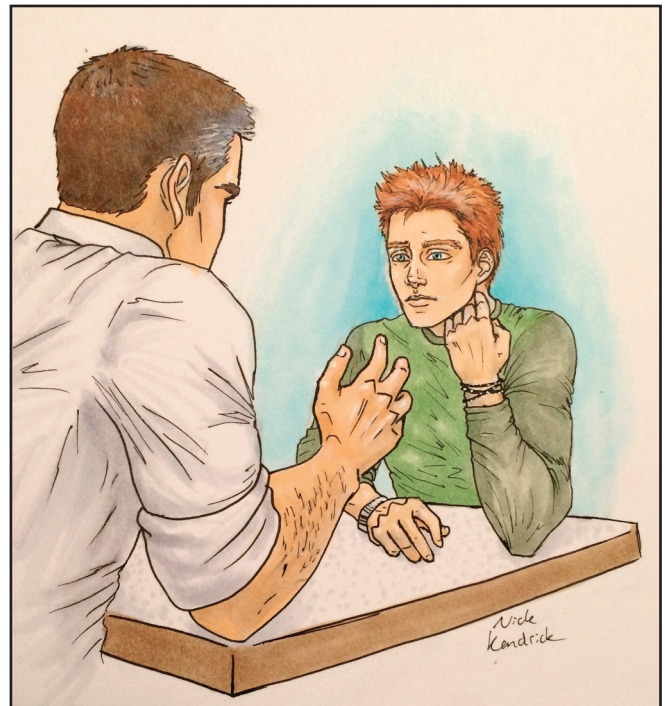

Illustration by Nicole Kendrick

■ ■ ■

*“The pessimist complains about the wind;
the optimist expects it to change;
the realist adjusts the sails.”*

— William Arthur Ward